

Why Partner with the SMGA?

- The Salute Military Golf Association (SMGA) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation:
 - SMGA's mission is to provide rehabilitative golf experiences for combat-wounded American soldiers injured in Iraq and Afghanistan.
 - The SMGA provides golf equipment, lessons, and playing opportunities for combat-wounded American soldiers.
 - All funds raised by the SMGA are used to benefit soldiers.

- The SMGA has a reputation for providing positive results:
 - SMGA programs have already touched more than 400 injured soldiers.
 - The SMGA has provided nearly 75 sets of clubs to wounded soldiers.
 - The SMGA was the focus of a PGA of America public service announcement.
 - The SMGA has been featured on NBC Nightly News, Fox News, CNN and others.
 - Visit the SMGA here: www.smgga.org and www.youtube.com/user/smgga11.

- The SMGA Experience:
 - SMGA Founder and President, Jim Estes, is a former PGA Tour player and Director of Instruction at Olney Golf Park.
 - Olney Golf Park has hosted numerous SMGA events; is one of only three sites nationwide sanctioned to host PGA of America Wounded Warrior Clinics; and has been the site for providing literally hundreds of lessons to combat wounded veterans.
 - SMGA and Olney Golf Park have established working relationships with Walter Reed Army Medical Center and numerous Washington, D.C., metropolitan golf facilities and businesses.

- Soldiers Attest to SMGA Programs:

"Golf has been the quintessential focus in my recovery...What Jim is doing is a great thing," U.S. Army Sergeant Joey Bozik.

"This program makes a big difference psychologically because it gets you integrated back into society," former Army Staff Sergeant Orlando Gill.

"Psychologically, it's a great thing, a great thing," Major Lionel Walton, U.S. Army Reserves.
